Kilometers for the Kids Race Series
In person race 10/3 at 9:00am, Virtual Race all Weekend 10/1-10/3
In person race: Old Well East Cameron Avenue

Carolina for the Kids’ race series, Kilometers for the Kids, is hybrid this year, meaning that there is an in-person and virtual option! Join us for an interactive weekend on October 1-3, 2021! All proceeds will directly benefit the patients and families of UNC Children’s. The in-person race will be on October 3rd at 8:00 am during UNC’s Family Weekend. You will have the choice of either running, jogging, or walking the one-mile fun run or 5k. The race will take place by the Old Well on UNC’s campus. The virtual race can be completed any time between October 1-3. Unlike previous years, there are four options. You can run a 10k, 5k, one-mile fun run, or you can bike a 10k. By participating in a virtual race, you get to run, jog, walk, or bike anywhere you would like. Also, you get to time it yourself and submit your results online! Whether you live in Chapel Hill or several states away, you are welcome to participate. REGISTRATION REQUIRED FOR RACE.

FPG Student Union, West Lounge
Join the Carolina Latinx Center and Student Life and Leadership for a joint Carolina Family Weekend and Latinx Heritage Month event! As the poet Damleon wrote, “Immigrant parents with their wings cut, still teach their children to fly,” we honor the stories of our families that got us to where we are today. For Latinx Heritage Month and Family Weekend, we will be spotlighting a wing design created by the incredible student Gabi Silva. The piece is, Borboleta, “is made up of individual representations of Latino culture and Latino orgs at Chapel Hill, which are arranged to form a pair of Monarch butterfly wings. We are inviting students and their families to stop by, take a picture with the wings to symbolize the community who has helped them fly! Hope to see you at the West Lounge Grid from 11am-1pm on Oct. 1st, 2021.

Ackland Art Museum

Join us for a guided tour of the Ackland Art Museum, Carolina’s local art museum with a global outlook. The Ackland has a collection of over 19,000 works and a mission to spark insight into ourselves, each other, and the world through “looking close and thinking far.”

Kilometers for the Kids

9:00am-12:00pm
Old Well

The Carolina for the Kids Foundation’s Kilometers for the Kids is an event for people of all ages: students, families, everyone. This year, we are offering a one-mile Fun Run and a 5K!

The Carolina for the Kids (CFTK) Foundation is the largest student-run, non-profit fundraising organization in North Carolina. We help fund what medical insurance cannot cover for patients and their families at UNC Children's Hospital. Since 1999, more than $6 million has been raised. We believe that together with our community, we can make an impact that can help alleviate the burdens incurred by families during hospitalization so that their focus can remain entirely on their child. Join us for an energizing morning, making memories with your family while also supporting families at the UNC Children's Hospital!

All participants registered by August 30th will receive a shirt and the top three runners in each category of the 5K will receive a prize! The 5K will start at 9am and the Fun Run will start at 9:15am. There will be pre- and post-race activities, along with light refreshments at McCorkle Place, right next to the Old Well!
